

CHOSEN

THE STORY BEFORE THE MANGER

2026 COMPANY GUIDE

THE FAITH CENTER • SUNRISE, FLORIDA

BE EARLY. BE KIND. BE READY.

YOU WERE CHOSEN.

NOW LET'S BUILD SOMETHING THAT MATTERS.

Welcome to CHOSEN: The Story Before the Manger.

Whether you are onstage, backstage, serving on the crew, volunteering, or supporting a young performer, you are part of this company—and your part matters.

We are not here simply to put on a show.

WE ARE HERE TO TELL A STORY.

A story of ordinary people asked to trust God before they could see the whole plan.

A story of faith, courage, obedience, hope, and promise.

And ultimately, a story that prepares the way for the birth of Jesus.

Because this story matters, how we create it matters too.

- * We will pursue excellence.
- * We will treat one another with honor and kindness.
- * We will make room for people to learn and grow.
- * We will work hard.
- * We will take care of one another.
- * And we will have fun building something none of us could build alone.

OUR PROMISE TO EACH OTHER.

You don't have to figure this production out by yourself.

We will do our best to give you clear information, the tools you need, and the support to succeed.

In return, we ask you to:

SHOW UP. Be dependable.

PREPARE. Do the work between rehearsals.

COMMUNICATE. Don't leave us guessing.

STAY TEACHABLE. Be willing to learn and adjust.

GIVE YOUR BEST. Whatever your role, make it matter.

A NOTE FROM YOUR DIRECTORS

We are grateful that you have chosen to take this journey with us.

Over the next several months, there will be hard work, discoveries, challenges, breakthroughs, laughter, and probably a few moments when we wonder how everything is going to come together.

That's part of making theatre.

Our promise is to lead with purpose, communicate as clearly as we can, and help give you what you need to succeed.

Your part is to trust the process, care for one another, and keep showing up ready to grow.

If we do that together, we believe we can create something that reaches far beyond the stage.

We are honored to build it with you.

OUR REGULAR REHEARSAL RHYTHM

WEDNESDAYS

6:30 PM–9:30 PM

THURSDAYS

6:30 PM–9:30 PM

SATURDAYS

10:00 AM–2:00 PM

CHILDREN & YOUTH

Children and youth will generally be dismissed by 8:30 PM on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Always check the live schedule for your actual call.

SATURDAYS MATTER

MAIN STAGE

Saturday is our regular opportunity to rehearse on the auditorium
main stage.

That means Saturday rehearsals become more important as we get closer to performance.

PERFORMANCE

Sunday,
December 20,
2026

Final performance-day calls and show-week details will appear on the live schedule as we get closer to the performance.

YOUR SCHEDULE CAN CHANGE

The regular rehearsal rhythm tells you when we normally rehearse.

It does not mean everyone is called to every rehearsal.

Some rehearsals may:

- call only certain people
- have a different time
- happen virtually
- be canceled
- use a different room
- be added as production
needs change

ONE SIMPLE RULE CHECK BEFORE YOU COME.

Look at:

DATE → TIME → LOCATION → WHO IS CALLED → STATUS

If an old text, screenshot, email, or printed schedule is different from the live schedule:

USE THE LIVE SCHEDULE.

The live schedule is always the source of truth.

BE EARLY.

BE KIND.

BE READY.

YOUR LIVE SCHEDULE

KNOW WHEN TO COME. KNOW WHERE TO GO. KNOW IF YOU'RE CALLED.

The live schedule is the official place to check your rehearsal details.

Before every rehearsal, look at five things:

Make sure you are looking at the correct rehearsal day.

2

TIME

Check your start time and end time. Some groups may have a different call time.

3

LOCATION

Check the room or whether rehearsal is virtual. Locations can change.

4

WHO IS CALLED

This is one of the most important parts of the schedule.
Do not assume every rehearsal is for the full company.
If your role, character, or group is not called, you may not need to attend.

STATUS

Look for the current rehearsal status before you leave home.

STATUS LABELS: KNOW WHAT THEY MEAN

CONFIRMED

Rehearsal is happening as listed.

PENDING

Details are not final yet. Check again before traveling.

VIRTUAL

Rehearsal is online. Follow the instructions provided.

LOCATION CHANGED

Rehearsal is still happening, but the room/location changed.

CANCELED

Do not come to rehearsal.

MAKE THE CALENDAR WORK FOR YOU

Save to phone

Add to Google Calendar

Add to Apple Calendar

Add to Home Screen

Print if needed

BUT REMEMBER:

A printed schedule can become old.
The live schedule is always the current version.

CHECK BEFORE YOU LEAVE HOME.

Even if you think you already know the plan, take 30 seconds to check before you leave.

TIME → LOCATION → WHO IS CALLED → STATUS

That one habit can prevent most rehearsal confusion.

PARENTS & GUARDIANS:

Check the live schedule before drop-off and pickup. Children and youth may have different dismissal times or may not be called for every rehearsal.

HOW REHEARSAL WORKS

COME READY. WORK WITH PURPOSE. LEAVE BETTER.

BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

Your rehearsal begins before you walk through the door.

CHECK YOUR CALL
Confirm your time, location, and whether you are called.

REVIEW YOUR MATERIAL
Look over the scenes, songs, choreography, or notes assigned to you.

BRING WHAT YOU NEED
Script • Pencil • Water • Rehearsal clothes/shoes • Any requested materials

ARRIVE EARLY
Early means you are checked in and ready to work before your call time—not walking through the door at your call time.

WHEN YOU ARRIVE

CHECK IN
Go to the designated check-in area and let the team know you are present.

GET READY
Put away unnecessary belongings, silence your phone, get your materials out, and prepare to work.

BE IN THE ROOM
When rehearsal begins, be where you are supposed to be—not in the hallway, parking lot, restroom, or still getting settled.

4

WARM UP & FOCUS
Depending on the rehearsal, we may begin with prayer, announcements, vocal/physical warm-ups, or immediately move into the day's work.

WHILE WE'RE WORKING

BE PRESENT.
When another person is receiving direction, listen. Their note may help you too.

TAKE NOTES.
Bring a pencil. Write down blocking, music, choreography, and director notes.

TRY IT.
You do not have to get everything right the first time. We do expect you to try, adjust, and try again.

ASK GOOD QUESTIONS.
If you are confused, ask. Whenever possible, save individual questions for an appropriate break so rehearsal can keep moving.

PROTECT THE ROOM.
Side conversations, unnecessary phone use, and distractions cost the entire company rehearsal time.

WHEN YOU'RE NOT ACTIVELY REHEARSING

This is still rehearsal time. Use it to:

Review your material

Practice quietly

Take notes

Watch and learn

Prepare for what is next

Do not assume a break in your scene means you are dismissed.

BEFORE YOU LEAVE

☐ Listen for final notes and announcements

☐ Write down anything you need to practice

☐ Clean your area

☐ Return borrowed props/materials

☐ Check your next call

☐ Make sure you understand what is expected before the next rehearsal

If you are unsure whether you have been dismissed:

ASK BEFORE YOU LEAVE.

OUR REHEARSAL STANDARD

BE EARLY.
Respect everyone's time.

BE KIND.
How we treat people matters.

BE READY.
Preparation lets us spend rehearsal creating instead of catching up.

ATTENDANCE & COMMUNICATION

WE CAN WORK WITH WHAT WE KNOW.

The company is counting on you. When you are called to rehearsal, your presence affects more than your own part. It can affect scene partners, music, choreography, blocking, technical planning, and the time of everyone in the room.

We understand that life happens. The most important thing is simple:

COMMUNICATE EARLY.
DON'T LEAVE US GUESSING.

IF YOU WILL BE ABSENT

As soon as you know you cannot attend:

- 1 REPORT IT
Use the official absence form in the CHOSEN Company Hub.
- 2 TELL US EARLY
Do not wait until rehearsal begins if you already know you will be absent.
- 3 GIVE US THE INFO WE NEED
Tell us which rehearsal you will miss and provide the requested information.
- 4 CHECK WHAT YOU MISSED
You are responsible for reviewing notes, music, choreography, blocking, or other material assigned during your absence.

IF YOU'RE RUNNING LATE

Things happen—traffic, work, school, family emergencies.

If you know you will be late:
Let us know as soon as possible.

Do not make the team wonder whether you are coming.

When you arrive, check in quietly and get ready to work without disrupting rehearsal.

PLANNED CONFLICTS

Already know about a date you cannot attend?

Tell us now.

The earlier the production team knows, the more options we have when planning rehearsals.

A conflict communicated early is much easier to work around than a surprise absence.

WHY ATTENDANCE MATTERS

Your rehearsal time affects other people. If you are missing, we may not be able to:

Block the full scene

Set choreography

Work harmonies

Practice transitions

Stage technical elements

Run the material properly

That's why consistent attendance becomes increasingly important as we move closer to performance.

REPEATED ABSENCES

Consistent attendance is part of keeping your commitment to the company.

Repeated absences, repeated lateness, or missed rehearsals without communication may affect casting, featured moments, staging, or participation in portions of the production.

These decisions will be made based on what the production needs in order to be safe, prepared, and performance ready.

ONE MESSAGE IS ENOUGH—IF IT GOES TO THE RIGHT PLACE.

To reduce confusion, use the official communication channels rather than sending the same question to several people.

SCHEDULE QUESTION?

Check the Company Hub first.

ABSENT OR LATE?

Use the official absence/late process.

REHEARSAL OR MATERIAL QUESTION?

Ask your designated leader or department lead.

SAFETY OR URGENT CONCERN?

Contact production leadership immediately.

NOT SURE WHERE TO START?

Go to the Company Hub → HELP.

OUR COMMUNICATION STANDARD

EARLY IS BETTER THAN LATE.

Tell us as soon as you know.

CLEAR IS BETTER THAN VAGUE.

Give us the information we need.

OFFICIAL IS BETTER THAN SCATTERED.

Use the correct channel so your message does not get lost.

WE CAN HELP SOLVE A PROBLEM WE KNOW ABOUT.

Communicate early. Stay connected. Keep your commitments.

★ OUR CULTURE ★

THE CHOSEN WAY

Talent helps us create a great production.
Culture determines what it feels like to create it together.

At CHOSEN, our culture is not something we simply talk about. It should show up in the way we rehearse, communicate, serve, solve problems, and treat one another.

★ OUR CULTURE ★

EXCELLENCE

It's our minimum.

Prepare. Show up early. Give your best.

HONOR

Everyone, everywhere, every time.

Speak with respect.
Assume good intent.
Honor the people around you.

BELONG

You are the missing piece.

Every person matters.
Every role matters—
onstage and behind the scenes.

CARE

Love Out Loud.

Notice people.
Help people.
Encourage and support
one another.

FUN

*We start the party
and enjoy it.*

Joy is part of the worship and part of the work.

PASSION

*Serving God.
Serving People.
Changing Lives.*

Remember why we are doing this. Let the purpose fuel the work.

ACTION

It starts with us.

See a need? Don't just walk past it. Help solve it.

SERVANT

*Die to self,
live to serve.*

Leadership isn't about being important.
Lead by lifting others.

★ WHAT DOES THAT LOOK LIKE IN REHEARSAL? ★

Culture becomes real through behavior.

You arrive early and prepared.

That's EXCELLENCE.

Someone else
has the floor,
so you listen.

That's
HONOR.

Someone is new,
so you welcome
them.

That's BELONG.

Someone is struggling,
so you stop
and help.

That's
CARE.

The room needs
some energy,
so you bring joy without being a distraction.

That's
FUN.

Rehearsal gets difficult, but you remember why the story matters.

That's PASSION.

You see something that needs to be done, so you help.

That's ACTION.

A prop, costume,
chair, or piece
of equipment
needs attention,
and you take care
of it—feeding recognition.

That's being a SERVANT.

SEE IT.
OWN IT.
HELP SOLVE IT.

When something goes wrong,
our first response shouldn't always be: "Whose job is that?"
Instead, when appropriate, ask:
"How can I help?"

Bring problems to the right leader—but whenever possible, bring a possible solution too.

SHORT & CLEAR.

POSITIVE & SOLUTIONS-ORIENTED.

ONE CONVERSATION, ONE CHANNEL.

That's the CHOSEN way.

CULTURE ISN'T WHAT WE SAY.
IT'S WHAT WE DO—TOGETHER.

RESPECT & CONDUCT

A GREAT PRODUCTION REQUIRES A SAFE ROOM.

1 WE PROTECT PEOPLE.

Honor and kindness at all times.

We do not tolerate:

- Bullying
- Discrimination
- Unsafe behavior
- Gossip
- Profanity
- Harassment

If you feel unsafe or see something that isn't right, tell the Stage Manager or Director immediately.

SAFETY IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN KEEPING A PROBLEM QUIET.

Speak up. Get help. We will handle it.

Together.

2 WE HANDLE CONFLICT THE CHOSEN WAY.

Creative people will sometimes disagree. That's okay. What matters is how we handle it.

1:1 KINDLY

Talk directly and kindly.

TEAM LEAD

Ask a team lead to help.

DIRECTOR

The Director makes the final decision.

3 THE FOUR-QUESTION TEST.

Before you say it, send it, post it, or do it, ask:

IS IT KIND?

IS IT HELPFUL?

IS IT RESPECTFUL?

DOES IT HELP THE COMPANY?

If not, choose differently.

EXCELLENCE ISN'T ONLY WHAT HAPPENS ONSTAGE.
IT'S HOW WE TREAT PEOPLE WHILE WE'RE GETTING THERE.

CHOSEN
WAY

WE PROTECT PEOPLE.
THE WORK.
THE ROOM.

SAFETY, YOUTH & MEDIA

KNOW THE PROCESS. PROTECT WHAT MATTERS.

1 ROOM SAFETY

INJURY OR ILLNESS	Tell the Stage Manager immediately.
AISLES & EXITS	Keep them clear at all times.
CABLES & FOOTWEAR	Watch for cables. Wear safe footwear.
ASSIGNED AREAS	Stay where you have been directed.
HAZARDS	Report spills, damage, or unsafe conditions.
INCIDENT REPORTS	Complete one if requested. Forms are available in the CHOSEN Company Hub.

2 CHILDREN & YOUTH

FOUR STEPS. EVERY TIME.

PARENT/GUARDIAN CONTACT MUST BE REACHABLE DURING REHEARSAL.
Please remain available in case production leadership needs to reach you.

3 MEDIA & SOCIAL

BEFORE YOU SHARE CHOSEN...

MINORS	Don't post photos or video of minors without the required parental consent.
SPOILERS	Don't reveal scripts, choreography, costumes, sets, or production surprises without permission.
MEDIA CONSENT	If you or your child cannot grant media consent, complete the Media Consent form in the CHOSEN Company Hub and notify the Stage Manager.
PRODUCTION CONTENT	Follow CHOSEN's media guidelines before sharing rehearsal or performance content.

NOT SURE?
ASK BEFORE YOU POST.

FOR FORMS, SCHEDULES & PRODUCTION RESOURCES → CHOSEN COMPANY HUB

KNOW THE PROCESS.
FOLLOW IT EVERY TIME.

COSTUMES, PROPS & BACKSTAGE

TAKE CARE OF WHAT HELPS TELL THE STORY.

Every costume, prop, microphone, scenic piece, and backstage station exists for a reason. They may look like “things,” but together they help create the world of CHOSEN.

Treat production materials as if someone else needs them after you—because they probably do.

1 COSTUMES YOUR COSTUME IS PART OF YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

KEEP THEM TOGETHER

Return every piece to its proper hanger, bag, rack, or designated area.

DON'T ALTER THEM YOURSELF

Do not cut, pin, sew, tape, mark, or modify costume pieces unless the costume team gives permission.

REPORT PROBLEMS EARLY

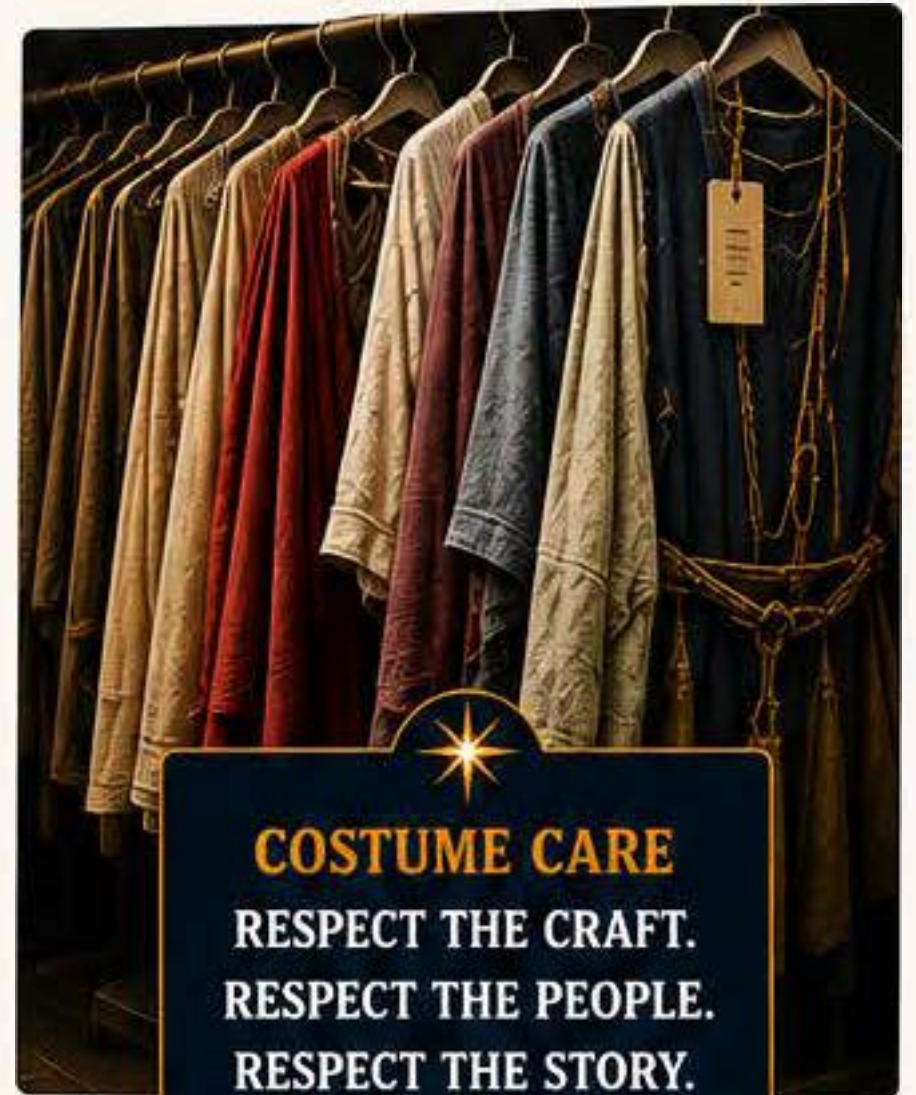

Something too tight? Missing? Torn? Uncomfortable? Tell the costume team before it becomes a show-day emergency.

FOLLOW FITTING CALLS

Costume fittings are part of rehearsal preparation. Arrive when called and follow the fitting instructions.

COME PREPARED

Bring any requested base layers, shoes, undergarments, hair items, or personal costume pieces when instructed.

COSTUME CARE
RESPECT THE CRAFT.
RESPECT THE PEOPLE.
RESPECT THE STORY.

2 PROPS IF IT ISN'T YOURS, DON'T PLAY WITH IT.

A prop may look simple, but it can be important to a scene, preset, safety plan, or transition.

THE PROP RULE

PICK IT UP ONLY IF:

- it belongs to your scene;
- you have been assigned to move it; or
- a production leader asks you to.

After using a prop:

RETURN IT TO ITS ASSIGNED PLACE.

Do not leave it on a chair, backstage floor, dressing table, or wherever you happen to finish with it.

SOMETHING BROKE?

Don't hide it. Don't try to secretly fix it.
Tell the appropriate production leader.
Early information gives us time to solve the problem.

4 MICROPHONES & TECH EQUIPMENT DON'T REMOVE OR ADJUST EQUIPMENT WITHOUT PERMISSION.

If you are wearing a microphone:

- follow the sound team's instructions;
- avoid pulling on cables;
- report problems immediately;
- return equipment exactly as directed.

For other technical equipment:

IF YOU HAVEN'T BEEN TRAINED TO USE IT, DON'T USE IT.

THE RESET RULE

LEAVE IT READY FOR THE NEXT PERSON.

	Costume used?	RESET IT.
	Prop used?	RESET IT.
	Chair moved?	RESET IT IF INSTRUCTED.
	Backstage area used?	LEAVE IT CLEAN.

BEFORE YOU WALK AWAY...

- ☐ Is everything where it belongs?
- ☐ Did I report anything missing or damaged?
- ☐ Is the path clear?
- ☐ Is the next person able to find what they need?

TAKE CARE OF THE DETAILS.
THEY TAKE CARE OF THE STORY.

TECH WEEK & SHOW DAY

— THIS IS WHERE EVERYTHING COMES TOGETHER. —

As we get closer to performance, rehearsals begin to feel different.

We will be combining:

Actors • Music • Choreography • Costumes • Hair & Makeup • Props
Scenery • Lighting • Sound • Microphones • Transitions • Backstage Crew

That means things may move more slowly at first. That is normal.

Tech rehearsal is not only about performing the show.

It is about making every part of the production work together safely and consistently.

THE CHOSEN WAY

WE PROTECT PEOPLE.

WE PROTECT THE WORK.

WE PROTECT THE ROOM.

1 EXPECT A DIFFERENT PACE

During technical rehearsals, we may:

- stop frequently;
- repeat the same moment several times;
- jump forward or backward in the show;
- work a lighting, sound, costume, or scene-change problem;
- ask some performers to wait while another department works.

WAITING IS STILL WORKING.

Stay available. Stay focused.
Know where your materials are.
Be ready when your name, role, or group is called.

2 YOUR CALL TIME MATTERS

Show-week call times are not suggestions.

Your call may include time for:

CHECKIN

COSTUME

HAIR/MAKEUP

MICROPHONE

WARM-UP

NOTES

PLACES

BE READY TO BEGIN AT YOUR CALL TIME—NOT JUST WALKING IN THE DOOR.

Always use the live schedule for your official call.

3 FULL COSTUME MEANS FULL RESPONSIBILITY

Follow the costume plan.
Wear the correct pieces.

Follow hair and makeup instructions.

Do not make personal changes to costume, hair, or makeup choices without approval.

Report problems early.

A broken zipper at rehearsal is fixable. A hidden broken zipper five minutes before places is a crisis.

4 MICROPHONES & SOUND CHECK

If you are assigned a microphone:

- Arrive when called for mic placement and testing.

Once it is placed:

- do not remove it without permission;
- do not pull or play with cables;
- tell the sound team immediately if something feels wrong;
- follow instructions about when equipment is returned.

5 PLACES MEANS PLACES.

“PLACES”

When Stage Management calls, the company should move immediately to the correct starting position.

That is not the time to:

- ✗ go to the restroom
- ✗ find your water
- ✗ finish a conversation
- ✗ search for a costume piece
- ✗ disappear backstage

★ HANDLE THOSE THINGS BEFORE PLACES IS CALLED.

6 NOTES MAY COME FAST

During tech and dress rehearsals, notes may be given quickly.

WRITE IT.

ASK IF NEEDED.

APPLY IT ON THE NEXT RUN.

Avoid long debates during company notes.

If a larger conversation is needed, leadership can handle it at the appropriate time.

7 SHOW DAY

Show day should feel exciting. It should also feel calm, prepared, and organized.

ARRIVE ON TIME.

FOLLOW YOUR SHOWDAY SCHEDULE.

BE WHERE YOU'RE SUPPOSED TO BE.

STAY AVAILABLE.

TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF.

TAKE CARE OF THE COMPANY.

TELL THE STORY.

★ Always check the CHOSEN Company Hub for your current call time and show-day schedule.

THE TECH-WEEK MINDSET

PATIENCE.

Tech takes time.

FOCUS.

Small details matter now.

FLEXIBILITY.

Plans may adjust.

STAMINA.

Take care of your body, voice, and energy.

TRUST.

Every department is working toward the same goal.

THE GOAL ISN'T JUST TO GET THROUGH THE SHOW.
THE GOAL IS TO BE READY TO TELL THE STORY TOGETHER.

CHOSEN
WAY

WE PROTECT PEOPLE.

WE PROTECT THE WORK.

WE PROTECT THE ROOM.

WE TELL THE STORY.

WHO TO CONTACT

— GET THE RIGHT QUESTION TO THE RIGHT PLACE. —

You should never have to guess who can help you.
Different members of the CHOSEN leadership team are responsible for different parts of the production.

The fastest way to get an answer is to start in the right place.

PRODUCTION LEADERSHIP

FREDRICK CUSTARD

PROP QUESTION	→	Props / Stage Management.
MICROPHONE / SOUND QUESTION	→	Sound team.
BACKSTAGE / PERFORMANCE QUESTION	→	Stage Management.
CHILD OR YOUTH QUESTION	→	Designated youth leadership / production leadership.
SAFETY OR URGENT CONCERN	→	Stage Manager or Director immediately.

BEFORE YOU MESSAGE SOMEONE...

01

CHECK THE HUB.
The answer may already be there

02

CONTACT THE RIGHT PLACE.
One clear message is better than sending the same question to five places.

03

GIVE THEM WHAT THEY NEED.
Include your name, your role/group,
what you need, and when you need it.

A CLEAR MESSAGE
LOOKS LIKE THIS:

“Hi, this is Jordan from the Ensemble. I'm scheduled for Saturday's rehearsal and have a question about my costume fitting.
Who should I speak with?”

NOT SURE WHO TO ASK?
CHOSEN COMPANY HUB → HELP

Current leadership and contact information lives in the Hub.

DON'T GUESS. DON'T CHASE.
START IN THE RIGHT PLACE.

WHEN THE AUDIENCE ARRIVES

— EVERY PERFORMANCE DESERVES YOUR BEST. —

The audience doesn't know what happened at rehearsal yesterday.

They don't know whether you're tired or whether something changed.

For them, this is the night.

1 THE SHOW STARTS BEFORE THE CURTAIN

ARRIVE PREPARED.

Give yourself enough time to become physically, mentally, and vocally ready.

BE PRESENT. Once you're in the theatre, bring your attention to the work.

PROTECT YOUR ENERGY. Use the time before the show wisely.

BE READY FOR PLACES. Don't make the company wait for you.

2 GIVE THE SAME STORY EVERY TIME

A live performance will never be identical twice.

That's part of its beauty.

But the audience deserves the same commitment every time.

DON'T PERFORM AT THE AUDIENCE.
TELL THE STORY TO THEM.

Stay connected to your scene partners.

Listen. Respond. Honor the staging, choreography, music, and direction that the company has built together.

NO NEW JOKES • NO EXTRA REACTIONS
NO CHANGED CHOREOGRAPHY • NO UNAPPROVED CHOICES

TRUST THE WORK.

3 SOMETHING WILL EVENTUALLY GO WRONG

- A prop may not be where you expect it.
- A costume piece may misbehave.
- Someone may miss an entrance.
- A microphone may fail.
- The audience may react differently than expected.

STAY IN THE STORY.

Don't announce the mistake with your face.

Don't stop unless safety requires it or Stage Management gives direction.

Don't blame someone backstage afterward.

RECOVER. ADAPT. CONTINUE.

5 AFTER THE BOW

- Return costumes, props, microphones, and materials according to the established process.
- Take care of shared spaces.
- Complete anything Stage Management needs from you.
- Then celebrate.

FINISH → RESET → CELEBRATE

4 THE AUDIENCE CAN FEEL THE COMPANY

What happens backstage eventually reaches the stage.

So during performances:

- Support each other.
- Keep backstage calm.
- Celebrate someone else's great moment.
- Solve problems without creating another one.

— THE PERFORMANCE PROMISE —

TONIGHT'S AUDIENCE GETS OUR BEST.

Not yesterday's best.
Not tomorrow's best.

Tonight's.

FOR THEM, THIS IS THE NIGHT.

— MAKE IT COUNT. —

THE CHOSEN
WAY

FOCUS.
PREPARE.
TELL THE STORY.

THE

“
It is in this basic process of teaching, and leading by example that we can begin to get to the root of our social problems.

— DELYTE W. MORRIS

THE COMPANY COMMITMENT

WE ALL HAVE A PART TO PLAY.

CHOSEN works when every person takes responsibility for the part they have been given.

Your role may be large or small.
You may be onstage, backstage, in a classroom,
at a prop table, behind a sound board, helping a child, or solving a problem no audience member will ever see.

It still matters.

BY BEING PART OF CHOSEN, I COMMIT TO:

SHOWING UP.

I will attend when I am called, arrive prepared,
and communicate early when something changes.

BEING READY.

I will learn my material, bring what I need,
take notes, and do the work between rehearsals.

HONORING PEOPLE.

I will treat cast, crew, leaders, children, volunteers, and guests with dignity and respect.

PROTECTING THE ROOM.

I will follow safety procedures, respect the facility,
and speak up when something needs attention.

CARING FOR THE WORK.

I will take care of costumes, props, equipment,
backstage spaces, and everything entrusted to the company.

RECEIVING DIRECTION.

I will listen, adjust, ask good questions,
and keep working when I receive notes.

COMMUNICATING WELL.

I will use the correct channels, check the Company Hub, and avoid creating confusion through scattered communication.

TELLING THE STORY.

I will remember that the goal is bigger than my individual moment.

WHEN THINGS GET HARD

There will be long rehearsals.

There will be changes.

There will be moments when you are tired,
frustrated, confused, or waiting.

That does not mean something has gone wrong.

It means we are making theatre together.

STAY TEACHABLE.
STAY CONNECTED.
KEEP MOVING FORWARD.

THE CHOSEN STANDARD

BE EARLY.

Respect
the time.

BE KIND.

Respect
the people.

BE READY.

Respect
the work.

EXCELLENCE • HONOR • BELONG • CARE
FUN • PASSION • ACTION • SERVANT

ONE COMPANY. ONE STORY.

No single person creates the production.

Every person contributes something the production needs.

BRING YOUR PART.
